Continuation Sheet

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:

Applicant's representative presented possible amendments to the claims. The Examiner believes that the proposed amendments to the claims would raises new issues requiring a novel search and further consideration. Also, any intended use and is not further limiting in so far as the structure of the product is concerned. In article claims, a claimed intended use must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. MPEP § 2111.02. Furthermore, the alternative proposed claimed amendments would change the focus of the claims to a combination claim, i.e. apparatus and product. Since the proposed amended claims would likely be subject to a restriction requirement, it is recommended to file a 1.53(b) continuation instead of an RCE.
